FAMILY FEST

Friday, July 21st Granger Assembly of God will be hosting Family Fest at the Granger City Park. This FREE event will run from 5-8pm and will offer fun and giveaways for all ages. Free hot dogs, water & chips will be provided for those in attendance as well (while supplies last). We will provide hands-on activities for the younger kids (bubble station, duck pond, face painting, etc) and contests for the older attendees as well (low hoop dunk contest, obstacle course, punt/pass/kick). Giveaways will be handed out frequently throughout the evening courtesy of many of the businesses throughout the valley. Everyone is invited to attend. If you have questions or would like to be involved please contact Pastor Laurence Guisinger at (509) 854-1781.

ANNUAL MENUDO FESTIVAL

Sunday, September 3rd is Granger's Annual Menudo Festival. Vendors and activities will run all day starting with a fun run sponsored by the Lion's Club. The volleyball tournament begins at 9am and vendors will be open and ready by 11am. Come buy menudo, play volleyball and check out the car show, music, vendors and more! THIS YEAR ALL VENDORS AND VOLLEYBALL TEAMS MUST REGISTER AND PAY ONLINE BY AUGUST 31ST TO PARTICIPATE!! Register @ grangerchamber.net.

For information on the fun run, contact the Granger Lion's Club.

All other questions can be submitted through the chamber website or at grangerchamber@gmail.com.

The chamber website is under construction! Many changes will be coming to the website including easier access to services that the chamber provides, a way to better promote and advertise our supporters, and up to date information. Be watching through the summer as Klarich Creations brings a professional face to the Granger Chamber of Commerce.

The Chamber website also offers online registration and payment for most events including the Annual Awards Banquet in the Spring, the Menudo Festival and Volleyball Tournament, and more to come soon!

Remembering:

Carol Newhouse joined the Granger Chamber in 2003 and immediately became a supporter for the Chamber and many other Granger projects and events. Her contributions to the Chamber included two terms as President, organizing judges for the Menudo Cooking Contest, and volunteering her many talents to make several Awards Banquets memorable. She was also involved with the Aquatics Center Committee.
