Come on out and hunt some zombies!
On October 31st from 5:30-7:30
Granger Assembly of God is hosting a Zombie Hunt with laser tag and live zombies. This event is safe for all ages, and we will have games, candy and hot cocoa even if you don't participate in the hunt!

Granger Historical Society Annual Open House and Bake Sale November 4th from 1-4pm at the Museum by the library. The Granger history book "A Place Called Granger" will be offered at a special price of $20 during this event. We will also be featuring a Veteran's display. Come buy some baked goods and check out some of the many wonderful pieces of Granger's history this museum has to offer!

Christmas Light Tour: the Granger Chamber is excited to again be hosting the Christmas Light Tour on Tuesday, December 12th @ 6pm at KDNA/NCEC. Bring your family out and ride the bus around town enjoying the beautiful Christmas lights while your ears are filled with the joyous sounds of the holiday season. After the bus ride, stay and enjoy some complementary cookies and hot cocoa inside the community center.

Chamber members Laurence Guisinger, Jo Klarich and Helen Dodd presented "Welcome Bags" to 7 new teachers during orientation on August 18th, 2017. Thank you to the 27 local businesses who participated with gift certificates, coupons, business cards, promotional items or yummy treats!

Major property sales in Granger this year:

- * Ryan Stonemetz bought the old sheep yards and is doing major developments. Plans include a community rec center with soccer fields, baseball fields, and four celebration halls that can be rented for events.
- * Jack Burnes sold land on Cherry Hill at the NW base of Cherry Hill to Yakima Housing Authority. They plan to build housing for growers to house H2A workers.
- * Paul Almanaz bought 3.3 acres on Temby, the SW end of Cherry Hill, he plans to build 30-40 apartments.
- * Johnny Isiordia bought 12 acres from Jim Ellenbas at the north end of 2nd Ave, with plans for creating and selling housing lots.

REMEMBERING:

Stanton's Family Barbershop has closed its doors. Our favorite barber, Gail, has decided it's time to retire after 30 plus years in business. She has always been a strong supporter of our community and was a long time chamber member. She will be greatly missed. We wish her much happiness in her retirement and recent marriage.
