Dear Chamber/Community Member,

It is that time of the year again to renew your dues to the Chamber and/or become a new member of the Chamber. Our records show that you renewed by January 1st of 2025 which means your current membership will end January 1st of 2026. Please choose what membership level you would like to pay as outlined on the reverse side of this page.

Some of the benefits of being a Chamber member are:

- Membership provides opportunities for members to increase customer base, meet with other business owners and have a voice in Chamber events such as Family Fest, Granger Community Day, Christmas Light Tour, and Awards Banquet/Auction.
- The Chamber website features local businesses, supports community and Business events such as Summer Movie Nights, the Cherry Festival, Farmers Market, Grid Kids, and provides information about many other events in Granger.
- Tourism is encouraged through a full page advertisement in the Yakima Valley Travel Guide and a weekly posting of Granger events on the Chamber website.
- Depending on what membership level the Business chooses, the business name will be on the Granger Chamber website; they will have links to their business on the website; they will have their business advertised on social media throughout the year; they could have a VIP table at the Annual Banquet/Auction; they could even advertise on the digital sign at the entrance of Granger; and they could even have a 3X3 sign with their logo, displayed at every Chamber sponsored event.
- Membership plaques are available for new members.
- A portion of dues paid by each member will be placed in the Scholarship fund that provides scholarships for one Granger High School senior graduate.
- Please see attached document for explanation of the fee structure for 2026 and the benefits of each level of membership.
- All memberships are for 12 months. Your 12 month membership will begin the date payment is received.
